

Boca Raton Historical Society & Museum
November 17, 2009

PRESS RELEASE

“Glitz, Glamour & Gloves”

The Boca Raton Historical Society hosted its fall fundraiser, Glitz Glamour & Gloves, at ZED 451 in Mizner Park on Saturday, November 7, 2009. Zed 451 was turned into a 1920s speakeasy with “bathtub gin” served upon entering, black jack tables, silent movies – all to the sultry sounds of Lourdes Valentin and Big Poppa E and the E Band. Patrons enjoyed food by the bite prepared by Zed and large format photos of Boca Raton in the 1920s were auctioned off to the highest bidder. The Dubliner provided Irish Coffee with dessert at the end of the evening.

More than 100 people enjoyed the 1920s event which benefitted the Boca Raton Historical Society’s operating fund. Sponsors included: Madelyn Savarick, Janice Middlebrook, Morgan and Dawn Zook, Boca Raton Resort & Club, George Brown, Peter and Kathy Spano, Debbie and Steve Abrams, Donald and Muriel Smith, Kaufman Lynn, Inc., and Kathy and Rick Qualman. Glitz, Glamour & Gloves Honorary Chairmen, Madelyn Savarick and Debbie and Steven Abrams; along with Chairmen Lisa and Derek Vander Ploeg, Dawn and Morgan Zook, and Bunnie Straub thank everyone who attended and supported this fund raiser.

The Boca Raton Historical Society is a membership organization whose mission is to preserve the past to enrich the future. Now in its 38th year, the Historical Society actively promotes historic preservation and education through its archival services, guided tours, and other heritage education programs. Anyone interested in learning more about the BRHS or how to become a members should go to www.bocahistory.org.

Photo: Joyce & Thom DeVita, Loretta & Joe Rauenhorst